

ANNUAL HOLIDAY EVENTS

Every fall and winter, Round Rock hosts a variety of unique cultural and holiday events that are fun for the entire family. From craft markets to theater shows and beloved holiday traditions, Round Rock offers a lineup of festive programming throughout the holiday season.

ANNUAL ROCKIN' AROUND THE HOLIDAYS BAZAAR

Clay Madsen Recreation Center
Early November

FREE with a donation of canned goods or colorful bandaid boxes

Enjoy a variety of vendors, artisans and crafters as you kick off the holiday shopping season.

ADDITIONAL HOLIDAY PROGRAMMING

Each year, Round Rock's diverse theater arts community produces live holiday programming. From radio-casts to fresh takes on classic holiday productions, Round Rock's seasonal performance calendar offers holiday fun for the entire family. Visit GoRoundRock.com for the latest holiday performance calendar.

BEAUJOLAIS NIGHTS Centennial Plaza

Third Thursday of November (FREE)

Partaking in a tradition nearly 70 years old, Round Rock will crack open the first bottles from this year's Beaujolais Nouveau harvest at the same time as the rest of the world – on the Third Thursday of November. Join in the free fun by uncorking this unfussy French wine under the twinkling stars at this live jazz soirée with food, music, wine and good times with friends, old and new.

Old Settlers Park
Early December (FREE)

Round Rock's Light Up the Lake is a 3-day holiday festival around the lake and festival area at Old Settlers Park during December. The event features spectacular holiday cold and hot air balloons hovering over Bright Lake, amazing light shows, live music, holiday food and refreshments, and more!

HOMETOWN HOLIDAY LIGHTS

Dec. 1 - 31

Downtown Round Rock (FREE)

Each holiday season, Downtown Round Rock dazzles visitors with a spectacular display of sparkling holiday lights, larger than life ornaments, gorgeous oversized gift boxes, and twinkling archways. Beginning at nightfall, families are invited to explore the historic downtown streets while enjoying picturesque holiday decor. The event is free and open to public nightly through the month of December.
