ARTS + CULTURE EVENTS

SCULPTFEST (APRIL)

Hosted by the Texas Society of Sculptors, this outdoor art exhibition and festival in the Historic Main Street District features more than 60 artists from across the U.S. The free event also includes live music, sculpture demonstrations, stone carving, bronze pouring, a children's art-in-action area, food trucks and music.

DÍA DE LOS MUERTOS PROCESSION AND FESTIVAL (NOVEMBER)

Hosted by Round Rock Ballet Folklorico, Williamson County Hispanic Heritage Committee, the City of Round Rock and Round Rock Arts, the Día de los Muertos Festival is an annual celebration of the traditional Mesoamerica holiday honoring both death and the cycle of life. The popular event features a festive parade, kids activities, food vendors and more.

CHALK WALK (OCTOBER)

The Chalk Walk Arts Festival is Round Rock's largest festival for the arts and features beautiful sidewalk murals created by hundreds of artists. Each year, Chalk Walk draws tens of thousands of curious spectators to this unique outdoor art festival. Chalk Walk also features a chalk art contest, live music and a family fun area. The popular event is a must-see for families, art lovers and artists alike.

BEAUJOLAIS NIGHTS (NOVEMBER)

A tradition nearing 70 years, the Beaujolais Nights celebrates the release of George Debeouf's Beaujolais Nouveau harvest at the same time as the rest of the world – the third Thursday of November. Join fellow wine-lovers at Centennial Plaza in Downtown Round Rock for a night of live jazz, expert wine presentations, local artist groups and plenty of French wine. The event is free and open to guests 21+.
